

Basin City Freedom Rodeo Queen SPONSORSHIP/ DONATION FORM

The Basin City Rodeo Queen is more than just a title—she’s a proud ambassador of the rodeo, the Western way of life, and the values that define the Basin City community. With grace, grit, and a deep respect for tradition, she represents the heart of the rodeo both in the arena and beyond. As a skilled horsewoman and confident public speaker, the Rodeo Queen helps educate the public about rodeo culture, supports local events, and brings people together through her presence at parades, community gatherings, and rodeo competitions. She embodies the spirit of leadership, resilience, and pride in rural heritage.

The Basin City Rodeo itself, especially known for its Freedom Rodeo, was born out of a desire to celebrate independence, community strength, and the right to gather and preserve tradition—even in challenging times. The Rodeo Queen stands as a living symbol of that freedom: the freedom to ride, to speak, to represent, and to honor the values of hard work, faith, and family.

Together, the Rodeo and its Queen remind us that freedom isn’t just a word—it’s a way of life, deeply rooted in the land, the people, and the enduring legacy of the American West.

The annual budget for the Basin City Rodeo Queen includes essential expenses such as wardrobe, travel to and from appearances, and paid admission to participate in promotional events throughout the region.

To keep this program thriving year after year, we rely on the generous support of individuals and businesses who believe in the value of promoting our rodeo, our community, and the young women who represent us with pride.

We’ve created this form to give a general idea of where funding is needed—but truly, every donation makes a difference. Whether it’s a one-time gift or ongoing support, your contribution helps ensure our Queen can continue to shine in her role.

Thank you for being part of this tradition!
